VETERANS MAGAZINE TOUCHES A NATION!

Today there are nearly 25 million American veterans. Less than half of them are active. It is especially important that more than 10 million veterans have the opportunity to read Veterans Magazine.

tion and knowledge about one another. 50,000 Veterans Magazines are published to help accomplish this goal.

Magazine readers, giving them a more active environment for their interests. Exciting war stories, instead of just drawing attention to the war.

One of the goals of Veterans Magazine is to have an efficient distribution system so that all veterans will be aware of the magazine. The magazine is being distributed through Wal-Mart stores. Veterans in California also include Veterans in the United States.
